ITEM 4 PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION

Item 4 of the Statement is hereby amended by adding the following:

I and several other founding partners of Sculptor Capital Management, Inc. (collectively, the "Founders") have recently corresponded with the Special Committee of the Board of Directors regarding potential concerns about whether the strategic process is being run in the best interest of all stockholders. Those concerns include: (1) the Special Committee may be discouraging potential bidders from making bids for distinct parts of the Company's business, including the profitable CLO business, even though analysts have noted the Company is worth less than the sum of its parts; (2) the Special Committee may not be encouraging potential bidders to consider alternative solutions to Mr. Levin's compensation package, effectively precluding potential bidders from preparing offers that would maximize value to all stockholders; and (3) the messaging of the process may be implying to potential buyers that management's approval is effectively necessary for any deal.

On January 17, 2023, the Founders reached out to the Special Committee with those concerns. The Special Committee through its advisors informed the Founders, in general terms, that these concerns were inaccurate, but did not provide additional details. The Founders asked that the Special Committee confirm that it had disclosed their correspondence on these subjects to all interested bidders, so that those bidders would be aware of the Founders' concerns. The Founders were told that the Special Committee would not do that. The Special Committee through its advisors further stated that the information in the letter was not material and merely restated the Founders' views, which the Special Committee believed were already well-known to potential bidders. The Founders do not understand the reticence of the Special Committee with being transparent with potential bidders, particularly since advisors to the Special Committee had stated that serious bidders would likely want to understand the Founders' views before executing any transaction.

The Founders have consistently supported an alternative transaction for the company that is in the best interest of all stockholders. The Founders have been clear that they do not believe that standard would be met by a deal that would seek to further entrench the interests of management. The Special Committee should pursue a deal that truly benefits the interests of all of the stockholders.

After reasonable inquiry and to the best of my knowledge and belief, the undersigned certifies that the information set forth in this statement is true, complete and correct.
